

Excellence in English Language Teaching

SEAFIELD

School of English

Seafield School of English

Based in the vibrant and exciting city of Auckland, Seafield offers a wide variety of English courses for all skill levels. Within our student-centered environment, Seafield's expert team of tutors ensures that you can learn at your own pace during quality courses so that you can focus on improving your English language ability.

Upon completing your study, you'll receive new opportunities: You'll be prepared for job roles that require a basic level of English comprehension. Advance in unique English-speaking educational programmes, and progress in your career. Alternatively, you can continue your English-speaking studies to achieve higher levels of competency.

Highest Ranking by NZQA

Seafield School of English is approved by the New Zealand Qualification Authority (NZQA) as Category 1 provider, which is the highest ranking given by NZQA for showing their confidence in our education performance and our self-assessment processes.

A member of English New Zealand

Seafield School of English is a proud member of English New Zealand. Students from around the world enjoy a high-quality English language experience and an unforgettable life experience when they choose an English New Zealand school.

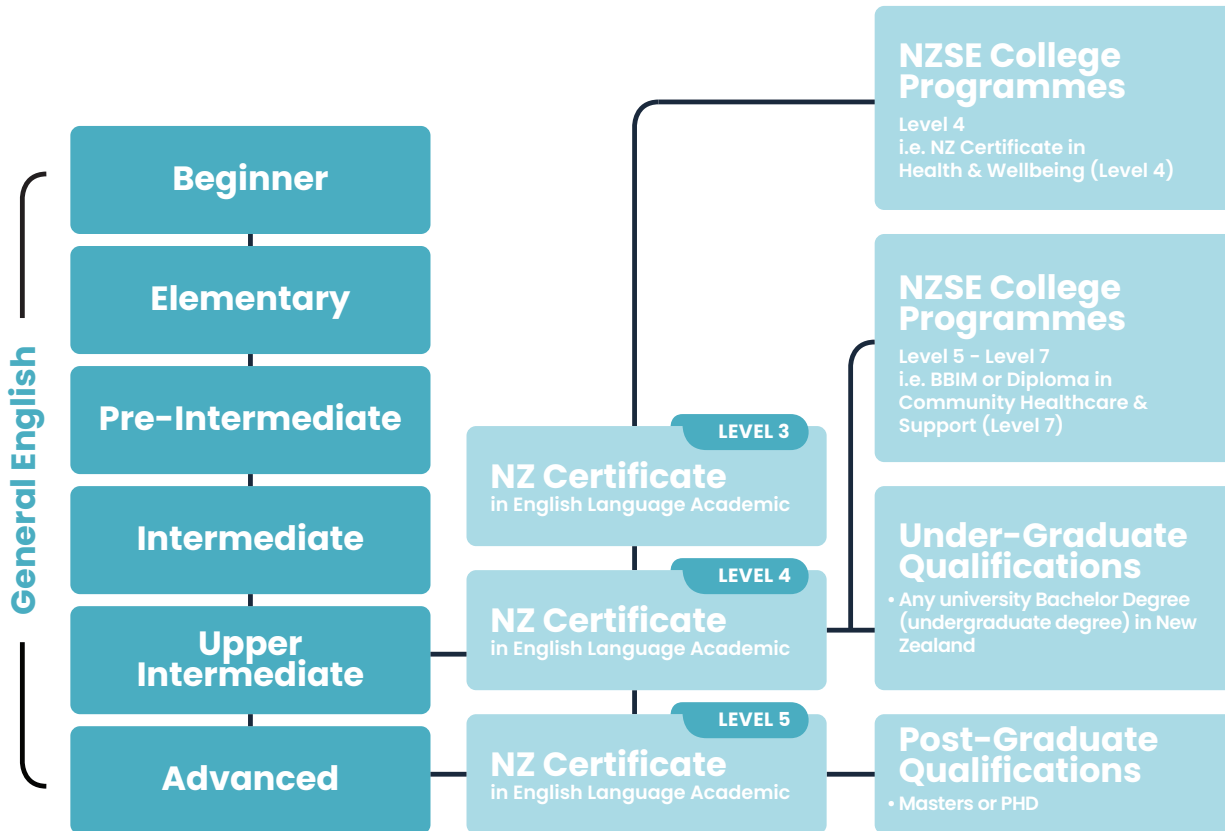

LanguageCert Approved Testing

Seafield School of English is also an approved LanguageCert (IESOL) Testing Centre. Candidates taking LanguageCert exams at approved Test Centres can be confident in a reliable, stress-free and familiar setting.

Further Study & Career Pathway

LanguageCert (IESOL) Testing Centre

Seafield offers LanguageCert International ESOL (English for Speakers of Other Languages) exams.

As an approved Test Centre we focus on exams that cater to International Students

- Meets the English Language criteria to enter universities and polytechnics in New Zealand
- B2 Communicator, High Pass: Entry into Level 5 qualifications
- C1 Expert, Pass: Entry into Level 6 and 7 qualifications
- C1 Expert, High Pass: Entry into Level 8, 9 and 10 qualifications
- LanguageCert International ESOL
- Separate Written Exams (Listening, Reading and Writing) and Spoken Exams (Speaking), leading to two separate certificates

Receive fast results and certificates

Language Cert

General English

Seafield's General English programme is designed for learners that wish to improve their English language skills at any level for any purpose. Course material is both engaging and relevant for a variety of study intentions, for those wanting to learn English for life in New Zealand or for employment; English for proficiency test preparation or English for tertiary study.

Standard courses are available in both morning and evening; Intensive course are also on offer and include an afternoon elective class. We allow our learners the freedom to move between the different timings of our courses so their study can be flexible to changes in work and lifestyles. Classes are level-based: Beginner to Advanced levels*.

Seafield's General English programme has a comprehensive six-weekly testing cycle so that you'll have the opportunity to learn, measure their learning and have their improvements reflected in their level.

(Maximum class size: 16-18 students - 20 class hours/week)

Standard Daytime classes

8.30am to 12.45pm or
12.45pm to 5.00pm
Monday to Friday

Standard Evening classes and teacher-led tutoring

5.00pm to 9.30pm
Monday to Friday

IELTS Preparation

Our IELTS preparation programme is designed for learners in preparation for taking IELTS (International English Language Testing System). Learners should have a level of English of Intermediate (B1+) or higher to benefit from the classes, and should be aiming for an IELTS band score between 5.5 and 7.0. Our experienced tutors will provide the learning for the different question and task types, effective vocabulary and exam techniques that will help them achieve their target band score.

(Maximum class size: 20 students - 20 class hours/week)

"I have benefited greatly from my studies with Seafield. My skills have progressed, including grammar, academic writing and conversational English and have prepared me well for my future studies."

Nanami Hayashi
Japan

NZ Certificate in English Language (Applied)

DURATION: 17 weeks
CREDITS: 60 credits
DELIVERY: Auckland CBD | Online (for off-shore students)

Level 3

During this programme, you'll develop the general English language skills that are required to listen, speak, read and write with increasing independence and fluency in academic, community or employment in New Zealand.

Over the 16 study weeks, learners will complete 12 assessments that demonstrate their skills.

(Maximum class size: 25 students - 20 class hours/week, 17.5 self-directed hours/week)

What will you Learn?

- Learn how to listen, read, write and speak in English throughout work, study and community contexts
- Get the language and study skills to succeed in New Zealand
- Study five 12 Unit Standards and gain credits towards meeting university entrance literacy requirements
- English language scholarships available

What is Next?

Further study

- • NZSE Certificate (Level 3 or 4)
- • Seafield's NZCEL Level 4 (Academic)

Entry Criteria

- Gained IELTS (General or Academic score) of 5.0 with no band score lower than 5 or higher in the 2 years before the start of the course; or
- Achieved a PASS overall and no less than 25/50 in each skill of IESOL B1 Achiever or B2 Communicator, and a Spoken PASS (ISESOL) in an official LanguageCert test, or
- Achieved a PASS overall and no less than 25/50 in each skill of IESOL B1 Achiever or B2 Communicator, and a Spoken PASS (ISESOL) in a Seafield LanguageCert mock test, or
- Placed in or achieved a pass at Upper Intermediate level at Seafield School of English, or
- Achieved Oxford Online English test B2, with nothing below B1
- Pearson Test of English score of 35 or more
- Onshore International Students
Onshore international students require a valid visa and insurance to study on the programme.
- Offshore International Students
Offshore international students do not require a visa or insurance.

NZ Certificate in English Language (Academic)

DURATION: 17 weeks
CREDITS: 60 credits
DELIVERY: Auckland CBD | Online (for off-shore students)

Level 4

This programme aims to provide learners with the language competency in academic contexts which will enable your pathway to further tertiary study. It sets out to further advance your skills across speaking, listening, reading, writing, as well as critical thinking. Plus, it helps develop both confidence and study skills so that you're able to undertake independent learning at the tertiary level, with further tertiary study pathways.

(Maximum class size: 25 students - 20 class hours/week, 17.5 self-directed hours/week)

What will you Learn?

- Learn how to listen, read, write and speak in English in academic contexts
- Get the language and study skills to succeed in academic study
- Study five English for Academic Purposes Unit Standards and gain credits towards meeting University Entrance literacy requirements
- English language scholarships available

What is Next?

Further study

- NZSE Diploma (Level 6 and above)*
- NZSE Diploma in Community Healthcare and Support (Level 7)*
- NZSE Diploma in Applied Network and Cloud Technology (Level 7)*
- Bachelor Degree and above*

Entry Criteria

- IELTS (Academic): 5.5 with no individual score below 5.0 (within the last 2 years)
- Oxford Online English test: B2, with nothing below B1
- Seafield English Language Tuition: Upper Intermediate Summative test: Overall Pass; No section failed
- Pearson's Test of English: At least 42 with no band lower than 36 (within the last 2 years)
- New Zealand Certificate of English Language: Level 3 (Applied) [NZQA Ref: 3667]
- LanguageCert: B2 Communicator Official Pass; or Seafield LanguageCert B2 Communicator Mock Test pass
- Onshore International Students
Onshore international students require a valid visa and insurance to study on the programme.
- Offshore International Students
Offshore international students do not require a visa or insurance.

NZ Certificate in English Language (Academic)

DURATION: 17 weeks
CREDITS: 60 credits
DELIVERY: Auckland CBD | Online (for off-shore students)

Level 5

The programme aims to provide learners with the language competency in academic contexts which will enable your pathway to further high-level tertiary study. It sets out to further advance skills ranging across speaking, listening, reading and writing – enabling you to undertake independent learning at a post-graduate, Master’s and doctorate level.

What will you Learn?

- Organisational skills: Ability to identify the relationships between concepts/ideas that are orally presented
- Critical Reading skills
- Time Management skills
- Research skills
- Critical Thinking skills
- Data Analysis skills
- Referencing: APA 7th edition

What is Next?

Further study

- Pathway to post-graduate, Master’s and Doctorate level of studies in New Zealand.

Entry Criteria

- IELTS (Academic): 6.0 with no individual score below 5.5 (within the last 2 years);
- Seafield English Language Tuition: Upper Intermediate Summative test: Distinction; No section failed. Advanced or Upper Advanced Summative test: Pass; No section failed;
- Pearson’s Test of English: PTE (Academic) score of 50 with no band score lower than 42;
- New Zealand Certificate of English Language: Level 4 (Academic) or Level 4 (General)
- LanguageCert:C1 Expert Official Test Pass; or Seafield LanguageCert C1 Expert Mock Test pass; or an equivalent to those listed as meeting entry criteria for a Level 5 qualification on the NZQA Table of Internationally Recognised English Proficiency Outcomes for International Students.
- Onshore International Students
Onshore international students require a valid visa and insurance to study on the programme.
- Offshore International Students
Offshore international students do not require a visa or insurance.

Activities at Seafield

From exploring New Zealand's extraordinary natural environment to enjoying entertainment with friends, experience both adventure and relaxation while learning English with Seafield in New Zealand.

At Seafield, you won't be short of activities to choose from – whether its joining our organised hikes around local parks, dining at nearby restaurants or visiting hotspots such as museums and art galleries on our day trips. Partake in our events and outings to celebrate global cultural events so that you can embrace cultures beyond your own.

Every Friday you'll be invited to an assembly for all our classes where we welcome new students as well as recognise achievements from current students – all within a relaxed and friendly environment.

